DEADLINE EXTENDED TO NEW STUDENTS
FOR FALL SIGN-UP, ORIENTATION PARTICIPATION

MISSOULA--

The deadline has been extended to July 6 for participation of new freshmen and transfer students in a fall quarter preregistration-orientation program at the University of Montana.

Mrs. Judy McBride, research assistant in the UM College of Arts and Sciences, said more than 200 new students have signed up for the fall preregistration and orientation program scheduled for July 15-16 on the Missoula campus.

"Students from as far away as New Jersey and California have returned the preregistration cards sent to all new students accepted for admission to the University," Mrs. McBride said, "but only about 30 of the 200 returning the cards are from the Missoula area. We're hoping more local students take advantage of preregistration and the new summer orientation program scheduled for mid-July."

Fall quarter students who are not interested in regular orientation activities may preregister for fall classes by being on campus for a brief period between the hours of 12:30 and 3:30 p.m. July 16.

"It will take only an hour or so for students to preregister if they are not interested in participating in all of the campus orientation activities," Mrs. McBride said. "However, each of the new students must return an orientation card to our office in room 101 of the Liberal Arts Building by July 6."

The orientation cards may be obtained by phoning 243-5921 if students have not already received them.

The early registration and orientation program was initiated under a $100,000 Ford Foundation Venture Grant to the UM College of Arts and Sciences.
